The distinguished philosopher and spiritual Master, Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov (1900 - 1986), was born in Bulgaria. In 1937 he moved to France, where he lived and taught for almost fifty years until his death. One of the most striking aspects of the Master's teaching is the enormous variety of ways in which he presents the one central theme of man and his growth in perfection. Whatever the question under discussion, it is invariably dealt with in terms of how man can better conduct his life.

The collected works of Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov are essentially comprised of thousands of lectures and improvised talks which were taken down in shorthand or recorded on audio tape and video cassette. New books continue to be published, and to date amount to 80 volumes in French, some of which have been Translated into more than 30 languages.

Autobiographical Reflections 1

'In the psychic world, we can be musicians, poets, architects, sculptors, etc. The work done by disciples of Initiatic Science includes all the arts.

What a discovery it was for me, the day I understood that I could work on matter which was not foreign to me – my own matter. That is why I only work at writing my own book, that is to say, myself. I have never written anything other than the book that is me.'

Table of contents

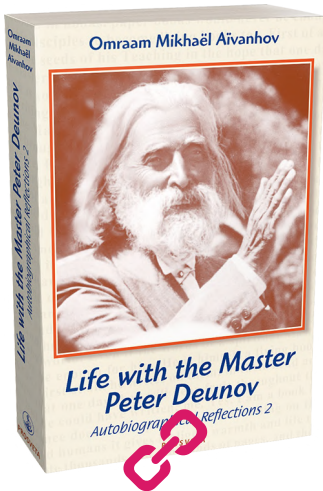

I. The mysterious pathways of destiny – II. A childhood in the mountains of Macedonia – III. Life in Varna, beside the Black Sea – IV. Apprenticeships – V. The experience of fire – VI. Into the heart of the rose – VII. The universal symphony – VIII. Meeting Master Peter Deunov - The revelations of Psalm 116 – IX. 'Frantsia', France – X. No prison can confine the spirit – XI. A year in India: February 1959 - February 1960 – XII. I am a child of the sun – XIII. Between speech and silence – XIV. I just write my own book – XV. All creation speaks to me, and I speak to it – XVI. An ideal of fraternal life – XVII. All I want is for you to be free – XVIII. Others help you through me – XIX. Only the unattainable is real – Addenda

Life with the Master Peter Deunov Autobiographical Reflections 2

'Even if the words of a spiritual Master can be contained in books, paper books would never be enough for him. He is himself a living book, and he needs his disciples to become living books too. First of all, he writes on them; in their head and heart he sows the seeds of his Teaching in the hope that one day they will bear fruit throughout the world. So, the Master wrote a book which no one but he could have written: me. Yes, I am a book he wrote.

The earth is so far from the sun! But the distance does not stop the sun from writing on the earth, and this writing is the stones, plants, animals and humans it gives its light, warmth and life to. Like the sun, the Master wrote on me from afar. He wrote thousands and thousands of pages, and they are now all brought together in the book that is me. Then, one day, he said to me, 'Now, you are ready; you can leave.'

Table of contents

I. An inspiring encounter – II. A prophet confronted by the Church – III. The clarity of the spiritual world – IV. The eternal student – V. Izgrev, in Sofia – VI. The first lessons of the mountain: Vitocha – VII. What does it mean to have a Master? – VIII. Masters and disciple weave the threads of life together – IX. Riddles to be solved – X. Tarnovo – XI. 'Continue to work in the three worlds' – XII. 'Where all human beings live as brothers and sisters' – XIII. Summer in the Rila mountains – XIV. In the kingdom of living nature – XV. In the alchemical furnace – XVI. 'You are made to work with women' – XVII. 'I possess a jewel of inestimable value'.

‘A lucid, cogent, and enjoyable account of the teachings of the great Bulgarian sage Omraam Mikhael Aïvanhov.’

‘In Georg Feuerstein’s wonderful presentation of a contemporary Master, I was deeply moved by Aïvanhov’s bodhisattvic simplicity, veracity, and good humor, and Feuerstein’s self-effacing clarifications where needed, that make this book a treasure trove for anyone open to the great wisdom traditions.’

Frederick Franck, M.D., author of The Zen of Seeing,
My Days with Albert Schweitzer, etc.

Daily Meditations 2022

An inspiring thought for every day of the year

21 March: 'Silence, peace and harmony are expressions of the same reality. Do not believe that silence is empty and mute – no, silence is alive, vibrant and it speaks, it sings. But we can hear it only once the big bass drums stop beating within us.'

Thanks to contemplation, prayer and meditation, we will one day be able to hear the voice of silence. Once all the chaotic forces have finally subsided, silence will draw near, spread out and wrap us in its splendid cloak. A clarity will come over us and we will suddenly sense that something very powerful reigns above us and governs us: this silence from which the universe emerged and to which it will one day return.'

♦ The Divine Seed

‘A seed is nothing other than a living being who ceaselessly calls upon the forces and materials of the cosmos so as to be able to accomplish its task. And its task is to resemble the tree that produced it.

‘The same thing applies to man. Since God created man in His image, he has the possibility, by developing himself correctly, of becoming like his heavenly Father.’

♦ Reincarnation

‘Belief in reincarnation is one of the cornerstones of morality. As long as human beings are unaware that the law of cause and effect is operative from one incarnation to the next, no amount of sermonizing will persuade them to change their ways. But once they know that the difficulties and trials they encounter in life are the direct result of faults committed in a previous life, not only can they accept them as just, but they start to work for good so as to be sure that their future incarnations will be better.’

♦ The Role of the Mother during Gestation

‘Throughout her pregnancy, a mother must try to create an atmosphere of purity and light around her child, so that she can work in collaboration with the incoming soul. The child itself has nothing, it receives all it needs from its mother. That is why she must be conscious and, by her thoughts and feelings, give it only the most luminous and purest particles.’

♦ The Importance of Light

'Why must we nourish ourselves with light? To feed the brain. The brain also wants to eat, and its food is light. We feed the stomach and the whole body with solid and liquid elements; we feed the lungs with air, and we forget the poor brain. It is nourished only by the solid, liquid and gaseous particles... That is why humans remain ignorant of celestial things, why they don't understand divine things, why they don't see clearly: because they haven't nourished their brains with light. By nourishing the brain with an element as subtle as light, the result is different.'

Music

The songs recorded below are by Peter Deunov, who was born in 1864 in Bulgaria. He is the founder of the Universal White Brotherhood, and was its Master until his death in 1944 with a medical background, he was also a musician: he played the violin. For many years, he composed music destined to support and enrich his disciples' spiritual life. In 1937 he sent Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov to France, his disciple since 1917, in order to spread the esoteric Teaching of the Universal White Brotherhood.

Peter Deunov's Paneurhythmy

- Dance movements and musical scores

With descriptions and commentaries in the light of the Teaching of Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov by Muriel Urech.

Meanings and descriptions (with diagrams) of the dance movements of the paneurhythmy.

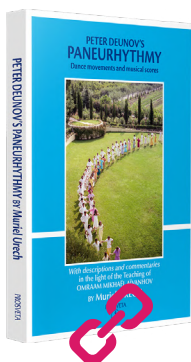

‘Everything in the universe is rhythm, and human beings themselves are part of this great cosmic rhythm. All their biological and psychic functions are subject to the laws of rhythm, even if this is not obvious. Depending on their way of life and on their thoughts, feelings and actions, they will harmonize to a lesser or greater extent with the universal rhythm. Music and dance are simply attempts to return to this universal rhythm or to remain within it. This is the reason why every culture attributes a divine origin to music and dance.

By creating the paneurhythmy, Master Peter Deunov gave us the means to harmonize with those rhythms in the universe that are the most beneficial.’

Precious stones, foundations of our inner sanctuary

'Precious stones have been prepared by nature to capture certain cosmic energies, then to project them and diffuse them. They are animated by powerful currents which circulate and vibrate, but it is up to us to learn to fix them with our thoughts, to give them an orientation so that they participate in our work.'
